

Patent duo appointed

Patent and trade mark law firm Mathys & Squire has appointed two directors from William A Shepherd & Son, Gary Johnston and Robert Hawley, to head the firm's new Manchester office. Opening the Manchester office reflects the firm's strategy to grow its UK client base and provide a local service to regional clients. The firm is headquartered in London but also has offices in Cambridge, Reading and York.

---