

Madrid Protocol

The Madrid Protocol system relates to the international registration of trade marks. It provides a single procedure for the registration of a trade mark in several territories. The system is a cost effective means by which to secure trade marks on a truly international stage. The system dispenses with overseas attorney fees at the point of application, thereby reducing costs significantly.

Afghanistan	Germany	Oman
African Intellectual Property Organisation (OAPI)	Ghana	Pakistan
Albania	Greece	Philippines
Algeria	Hungary	Poland
Antigua & Barbuda	Iceland	Portugal
Armenia	India	Republic of Korea
Australia	Indonesia	Republic of Moldova
Austria	Iran (Islamic Republic of)	Romania
Azerbaijan	Ireland	Russian Federation
Bahrain	Israel	Rwanda
Belarus	Italy	Samoa
Belgium	Jamaica	San Marino
Bhutan	Japan	Sao Tome and Principe
Bosnia and Herzegovina	Kazakhstan	Serbia
Botswana	Kenya	Sierra Leone
Brazil	Kyrgyzstan	Singapore
Brunei Darussalam	Lao People's Democratic Republic	Slovakia
Bulgaria	Latvia	Slovenia
Cambodia	Lesotho	Spain
Canada	Liberia	Sudan
China	Liechtenstein	Sweden
Colombia	Lithuania	Switzerland
Croatia	Luxembourg	Syrian Arab Republic
Cuba	Madagascar	Tajikistan
Cyprus	Malawi	Thailand
Czech Republic	Malaysia	Trinidad and Tobago
Democratic People's Republic of Korea	Mexico	Tunisia
Denmark	Monaco	Turkey
Egypt	Mongolia	Turkmenistan
Estonia	Montenegro	Ukraine
Eswatini	Morocco	United Arab Emirates
European Union	Mozambique	United Kingdom
Finland	Namibia	United States of America
France	Netherlands	Uzbekistan
Gambia	New Zealand	Vietnam
Georgia	North Macedonia	Zambia
	Norway	Zimbabwe